Robbery and Attempted Carjacking Arrest

On June 04, 2023, at approximately 10:00 p.m., Monterey Police Officers were dispatched to the 800 block of Foam Street, Monterey, regarding a robbery and attempted carjacking that just occurred. The victim was near his vehicle when two suspects approached him and demanded his keys at gunpoint. Both suspects began to punch the victim in the face and head. At one point, the victim was hit on the head with something hard, causing a small laceration to the back of his head. The suspects stole the victim's cell phone from his pocket.

Monterey Police Officers arrived on scene and set up a perimeter. With the help of video surveillance from a nearby business, a description of the suspects was broadcasted to the perimeter officers. One of the suspects was located on the recreation trail near Drake Avenue and immediately fled from officers. After an extensive search, the suspect was located and arrested in the 300 block of Foam Street. No gun was located.

The suspect was identified as Abraham Andrade, 18, of Greenfield. He was arrested for attempted carjacking, robbery, conspiracy, vandalism, and obstructing/resisting arrest.

Andrade was booked at the Monterey County Jail. His bail was set at $140,000.

The second suspect remains unknown.

If you have any information regarding this case, please contact Detective Sergeant Greg Galin (831) 646-3872.
